TYPE OF INCIDENT:

Mutual Aid Assistance

DATE AND TIME OF OCCURRENCE:

June 23, 2012, at 12:20 p.m.

INCIDENT SUMMARY:

Hill Incident: On Saturday, June 23, at 12:20 p.m., a brush fire broke out at the Hungry Valley State Vehicular Recreation Area located at the Smith Forks campground at the Hungry Valley State Park in the City of Gorman in the County of Ventura. Los Angeles County firefighters arriving on scene observed two acres of light brush on fire, running south with winds at seven miles per hour. LACoFD took initial incident command as the first agency on scene and began fire attack, along with Angeles National Forest Fire personnel. At 1:32 p.m., Los Padres National Forest became the lead agency, with LACoFD assisting in the fight against the brush fire, which had grown to 40 acres. At approximately 6:00 p.m., LACoFD resources were released from the incident by Los Padres National Forest. There was no fire involvement in Los Angeles County. LACoFD resources assigned to this incident include two helicopters, two helitenders, seven engines, one engine strike team, one dozer team, one heavy equipment operator, two water tenders, five camp crews, four superintendents, one patrol, one squad, two battalion chiefs, and one assistant chief.
